OPPOSE FREE FACTORY SITES

Members of Chamber's Manufacturing Committee Consider Enterprises.

The manufacturing committee of the chamber of commerce, at a meeting Thursday afternoon discussed during factory sites, and the decision was reached that such a program would not be wise. It has been suggested in a letter to the committee by E. R. Allison that the city own the land in the city and in the vicinity of Port Jett be set aside for free factory sites.

J. M. Wyatt, who presided over the committee, favored making new factory sites. The committee also discussed the possibility of the city owning the land in the city and in the vicinity of Port Jett be set aside for free factory sites.

Charles A. Cutler, representing the Pure Food Player Products company, appeared before the board and presented a plan for the city to own the land in the city and in the vicinity of Port Jett be set aside for free factory sites.

The committee examined the specifications of fruit and vegetables and read the various acts of the legislature, but the plan for the city to own the land in the city and in the vicinity of Port Jett be set aside for free factory sites.

The proposition of the Denver Boiler & Iron Works to open a foundry here was considered. No action was taken, as the foundry business in this field is at present stationary and it was hardly deemed advisable to bring in an industry which would not be a success from the start.

The communication was read from Moorhead and company, industrial and public service utilities, suggesting means for stimulating local trade business, but just how was not stated. Secretary Malcolm Fraser was instructed to discover what the advertising people had to offer.

Those present at the meeting were J. M. Wyatt, W. M. Platt, O. J. Binford and secretary Malcolm Fraser.

Time of the Odd Fellows grand lodge meeting in Mineral Wells, will make her report.

Tornillo camp No. 42. Woodmen of the World, elected one candidate by ballot at the meeting Monday night. The lodge has appointed a committee, headed by H. A. Rothering, to plan some sort of outing for a date in the near future.

K. of P. Center Degrees.

At the weekly meeting of the Knights of Pythias Thursday night, the rank of K. of P. was conferred upon Carl C. Hill. Two new members were admitted to membership upon transfer certificates. They were Dr. J. P. McLean, of Oklahoma, and W. H. Root, of Arkansas.

The Elks will install their new officers Tuesday.

BROOKS THINKS WILSON A PATRIOT

Candidate For U. S. Senate Says President Not a Politician.

Dr. S. P. Brooks, former president of Baylor university and candidate for United States senator to succeed senator C. A. Culberson, addressed a gathering of laymen at the El Paso-Houston Square church Thursday night.

Says Wilson is a Patriot.

"I am in sympathy with president Wilson in the Mexican situation," said Dr. Brooks Thursday afternoon. "I think the president has made some mistakes, but I cannot help but look upon him as a patriot. If he were a politician he would have provoked a war no war president could be defeated. Instead, he has expressed the greatest patience and forbearance, and I give him all his actions towards the Mexican people. I believe that Taft showed the patriotism when he refused, on the eve of the campaign in which he entered the country into war with Mexico."

"I deplore the conditions that exist on the border, and I certainly hope that our troops will catch Villa. I desire to see the army in the field until he is caught, and I sincerely hope that we can do it honorably."

"I am a firm supporter of president Wilson and favor his policies. If the time comes when we differ in fundamentals I shall oppose him to that extent, but so long as he is the party leader and I do not differ with him fundamentally, I will work for him and his policies."

Is for Preparedness.

"I am for preparedness, although I am not as much frightened about what somebody is going to do to us from the outside as I am about what militarism, its expense and other consequences, would do from the inside. I favor a preparedness to care for our interior and overseas possessions and to meet any and every emergency that might arise. I would keep up the present efficiency of the navy and army. I would have hundreds of airplanes, manned by submarines, and plenty of ammunition and arms in the hands of a citizen soldiery. If, however, when the European war is at an end, circumstances seem to justify it, I would vote any enlargement of the army and navy to meet the demands necessary to maintain American rights before and against the whole world."

For Years a Prohibitionist.

"I have for many years been a prohibitionist, and while I do not think that it should be the main issue in this campaign, nevertheless I am looking to the support of all militant prohibition in the state. I shall have large support also from the alumni of Baylor university and alumni of other educational institutions."

"This is the first office I have ever sought, and I have never held a public office, and I believe that this is in my favor. The campaign of four years that I am confident are with me will, I sincerely believe, win me the senatorship. In the naming off of candidates I have been named as one of the strong ones by all politicians. To some the race is between Colquhoun and myself; to others, it is congressional Henry and myself."

Managing Own Campaign.

"I am managing my own campaign and am spending nothing except for railroad fare and for campaign literature. A secretary in El Paso attends to my correspondence while I am away. I have traveled 12,000 miles since last June. I have been meeting men personally and handling them my platform. In some places I make speeches; in others I merely meet men."

Meeting This Evening.

A luncheon was given at noon Friday at Hotel Sheldon in honor of Dr. Brooks by former Baylor students and graduates who live in El Paso and other friends of the educator.

This evening the Baylor graduates and former students will hold an informal reception and meeting for Dr. Brooks from 5:30 to 6:30 in the parlors of the Paso del Norte hotel.
